Tonic Waters

to pair with our selection of Gins

Seventeen

Provenience: Spain

Characterized by its fresh floral aroma, accompanied by hints of quinine and a citrus aftertaste of tangerine. It features soft and elegant bubbles, creating a harmonious balance between bitterness and sweetness.

5,50

Indian Fever Tree

Provenience: United Kingdom

Crafted using quinine from the Congo and bitter oranges from Mexico. It is lively, dark, smooth, and refreshing.

5,50

Mediterranea Fever Tree

Provenience: United Kingdom

Seventeen Tonic is obtained by blending essential oils of flowers, fruits, and herbs collected from the Mediterranean coast. It is elegant and rounded, with soft saline notes.

5,50

Elderflower Fever Tree

Provenience: United Kingdom

Delicate and effervescent bubbles, with a pleasant aroma of white flowers and aromatic herbs. It has a soft, round, and slightly sweet taste.

5,50

Tyrol

Provenience: Alto Adige

Freshness and seductive sweetness, accompanied by delicate and pleasant bitter notes. Excellent in the company of floral gins.

5,00

Ginger Beer

Provenience: United Kingdom

A unique blend of the finest gingers, subtle botanical flavors, and spring water. Not overly sweet on the palate, with a long and deep ginger finish.

CURIOSITY

What is quinine? It is a natural alkaloid originally derived from the bark of the Andean Cinchona plant. It was initially known and used as a medication for its antipyretic, antimalarial, and analgesic properties.
